

Aufheben back issues available

Issue 15 (2007)

Lebanon, Iran and the 'Long war' in the wider middle east. Theoretical criticism and practical overthrow fifteen years on. Review of Moishe Postone's Time, labour and social domination.

Issue 14 (2006)

China and world capitalism. Questions on immaterial labour: review of Negri & Hardt's Empire and Multitude. Inside and outside the G8 protests. Cyber-Marx review.

Issue 13 (2005)

The housing question. Critique of Fortunati's Arcane of reproduction. Théorie Communiste: a further reply.

Issue 12 (2004)

Oil wars and world orders old and new. A phenomenal anti-war movement? Reply to Théorie Communiste. Review article: Hotlines.

Issue 11 (2003)

Class re-composition in Argentina? From operaismo to 'autonomist Marxism'. Théorie Communiste: Beyond the ultra left? Review: John Holloway's Change the world without taking power

Issue 9 (autumn 2000)

The Zapatistas: a commune in Chiapas?; What was the USSR Part 4: Towards a theory of the deformation of value under state capitalism. Back to the Situationist International (Gilles Dauvé)

Issue 8 (autumn 1999)

Editorial; Humanitarian war in Kosovo; Re-imposition of work in Britain and the 'social Europe'; What was the USSR? Part 3 (Left communism and the Russian Revolution)

Issue 6 (autumn 1997)

What was the USSR? Part 1 (Trotsky and state capitalism); Reflections on Class War; Whatever happened to the Situationists?

Issue 5 (autumn 1996)

Class struggles in France, Winter 1995; autonomists and capital's strategy; reviews: 'new movements', James Carr's autobiography.

Issues 5, 6, 8 and 9: £2.00 (UK and Europe),
£3.00 (rest of world) .

Issues 11-14: £3.00 each (everywhere)

Issues 15 and 16 (LATEST ISSUE)
£3.50 each (everywhere)

Prices include postage. Sterling or sterling cheques (or cash) only, payable to Aufheben

Stop the clock! Critiques of the new social workhouse (2000)

1. Preface: Putting the critique of capitalism back on the table (Wildcat)
2. Considerations of the agitations of unemployed and casual workers (Mouvement Communiste)
3. Unemployed recalcitrance and welfare restructuring in the UK today (Aufheben)
4. Reforming the welfare state to save capitalism (Wildcat)
5. 3 hour week: Lower incomes and more work (Wildcat)
6. The awkward question of times (Precari Nati)
7. 'Thirty-five hours' against the proletariat (Mouvement Communiste)

£2.50 UK (inc. postage); £3.00 elsewhere (inc. postage). Sterling cheques only, payable to Aufheben.