While the Left is busy denouncing Israeli aggression as imperialism, based on an assumption that democratic forms of government cannot be combined with aggression and oppression abroad, that American and British example (to start with) hardly warrants — Arabs are coming to London and investing their huge oil investments.

Property developers I. Sanders & Sons (Holdings) plan to sell a £15 million slice of residential London to the Arabs, touting them round the sheikhs and ruling families.

Those dispossessed by property development will not be down to the level of impoverished Arabs dispossessed by government action; on the other hand there will be no United Nations relief for them.

The huge sums that are coming the way of these desert rulers — merely by virtue of the accident of finding oil beneath the land their ancestors occupied — mean they can take over huge chunks of bankrupted Western capitalist economy. With no pretence of working for it. Yet there is no outcry over this type of immigration. Working people seem ready enough to accept an Arab boss; they reserve their energies for denouncing the fellow working man who comes in to earn his living by work.

The South West African People’s Organisation (SWAPO) claims that 200 South African troops were killed or wounded in recent clashes between April 9 and July 24, either in the north] of Namibia (South West Africa) or in the Caprivi strip. The only information available on this development was to be found in the September issue of Anti-Apartheid News where a photograph of captured South African equipment was shown.

South African forces have invaded Angola during August. They occupied a zone 35 miles deep along Angola’s southern border and sent a column 250 miles to the north. It seems likely that South Africa was either seeking to find SWAPO bases or has intentions of seizing part of Southern Angola, when Angola becomes independent of Portugal on November 11. I am told that the Financial Times was the sole newspaper to carry a report of the invasion of South African troops, and subsequently the Guardian weeks later. The South African Government has confirmed the action.

A military camp in South Africa was attacked during August by rockets. South African Defence Minister, Peter Botha, told the ruling National Party congress that the camp, which was not identified, was on South Africa’s border. This information was noted in Workers Press in their issue of September 5, but not seen elsewhere. Your correspondent might lie by saying he wonders why the media have given such scant regard to reporting the above information.

Some would persuade us that the fighting in Northern Ireland is between “Left Wing” Catholics and “Right Wing” Protestants. We have always taken a dim view of that.

We prefer a working-class analysis. Now we hear of “Right Wing” Christians fighting “Left Wing” Moles in the Lebanon. The idea of being Left Wing in the Modern religion, which glorifies setting a slave free and so perpetuates slavery — is no more, no less as difficult to give credence to than the idea that the Roman Church is the pillar of freedom and justice.

The struggle taking place in the Lebanon is between two power groups. They have nothing to do with socialism as such. But possibly “Left” or “Right” denotes attitudes to Russian imperialism? If so, the terms are more misleading than normally is the case.

The huge sums that are coming the way attacked during August by rockets. South African forces have invaded Angola over huge chunks of bankrupted Western Africa’s border. This information was noted in Workers Press in their issue of September 5, but not seen elsewhere. Your correspondent might lie by saying he wonders why the media have given such scant regard to reporting the above information.

The idea of being Left Wing in the Modern religion, which glorifies setting a slave free and so perpetuates slavery — is no more, no less as difficult to give credence to than the idea that the Roman Church is the pillar of freedom and justice.

The struggle taking place in the Lebanon is between two power groups. They have nothing to do with socialism as such. But possibly “Left” or “Right” denotes attitudes to Russian imperialism? If so, the terms are more misleading than normally is the case.

The huge sums that are coming the way attacked during August by rockets. South African forces have invaded Angola over huge chunks of bankrupted Western Africa’s border. This information was noted in Workers Press in their issue of September 5, but not seen elsewhere. Your correspondent might lie by saying he wonders why the media have given such scant regard to reporting the above information.

The idea of being Left Wing in the Modern religion, which glorifies setting a slave free and so perpetuates slavery — is no more, no less as difficult to give credence to than the idea that the Roman Church is the pillar of freedom and justice.

The struggle taking place in the Lebanon is between two power groups. They have nothing to do with socialism as such. But possibly “Left” or “Right” denotes attitudes to Russian imperialism? If so, the terms are more misleading than normally is the case.

The huge sums that are coming the way attacked during August by rockets. South African forces have invaded Angola over huge chunks of bankrupted Western Africa’s border. This information was noted in Workers Press in their issue of September 5, but not seen elsewhere. Your correspondent might lie by saying he wonders why the media have given such scant regard to reporting the above information.

The idea of being Left Wing in the Modern religion, which glorifies setting a slave free and so perpetuates slavery — is no more, no less as difficult to give credence to than the idea that the Roman Church is the pillar of freedom and justice.

The struggle taking place in the Lebanon is between two power groups. They have nothing to do with socialism as such. But possibly “Left” or “Right” denotes attitudes to Russian imperialism? If so, the terms are more misleading than normally is the case.

The huge sums that are coming the way attacked during August by rockets. South African forces have invaded Angola over huge chunks of bankrupted Western Africa’s border. This information was noted in Workers Press in their issue of September 5, but not seen elsewhere. Your correspondent might lie by saying he wonders why the media have given such scant regard to reporting the above information.

The idea of being Left Wing in the Modern religion, which glorifies setting a slave free and so perpetuates slavery — is no more, no less as difficult to give credence to than the idea that the Roman Church is the pillar of freedom and justice.

The struggle taking place in the Lebanon is between two power groups. They have nothing to do with socialism as such. But possibly “Left” or “Right” denotes attitudes to Russian imperialism? If so, the terms are more misleading than normally is the case.

The huge sums that are coming the way attacked during August by rockets. South African forces have invaded Angola over huge chunks of bankrupted Western Africa’s border. This information was noted in Workers Press in their issue of September 5, but not seen elsewhere. Your correspondent might lie by saying he wonders why the media have given such scant regard to reporting the above information.

The idea of being Left Wing in the Modern religion, which glorifies setting a slave free and so perpetuates slavery — is no more, no less as difficult to give credence to than the idea that the Roman Church is the pillar of freedom and justice.

The struggle taking place in the Lebanon is between two power groups. They have nothing to do with socialism as such. But possibly “Left” or “Right” denotes attitudes to Russian imperialism? If so, the terms are more misleading than normally is the case.

The huge sums that are coming the way attacked during August by rockets. South African forces have invaded Angola over huge chunks of bankrupted Western Africa’s border. This information was noted in Workers Press in their issue of September 5, but not seen elsewhere. Your correspondent might lie by saying he wonders why the media have given such scant regard to reporting the above information.
For ever
Rao Dabou

IF THAT WERE ALL!

The delight of wartime propagandists was to spread the story that Hitler "disguised himself as a Bavarian" who only became legitimised by his mother's subsequent marriage, but for which he would have been named Schiklgruber, makes one realise how little truth there is in this. With so much to complain of, was not this the least and hardly to his discredit?

Now the story dug up by some American professors is that he was really a Rothschild. (How pleasing to those who blame the Jews for everything that they can.) With this would account for the stroke of genius in the otherwise undeclared Hitler. Where have we heard this argument before? Ah yes - the Banneton. Shakespeare was truly written by Lord Bacon because how could the son of a Stratford-on-Avon petty tradesman, with his sister's "passionate love", have become a dictator? The "evidence" for this is his nom de plume, "A nother". Instead of rock and it could have been a concentration camp. Instead of Make Love Not War over the portals and Beethoven's Angels which is seen in Aldous Huxley's Brave New World, with thousandsof pounds subsidy, anything would have been better. Instead of Russian or Chinese Supportso that he can Stand on his own feet, as a genuine Socialist, he is seen as a "nother".

But what plans! Sid Rawle the "hippy" leader (king?) elevated to chop up wood...to 83116131, not by the political correspondents of newspapers but by the general reporters according to the story _on the Stanton-". He was re-appointed by the chairman of the East Anglia Society which is seemin Aldous Huxley's Brave New World, but the police weren't having it, and the Home Office produced its plans for their own extermination! The "evidence" for this is that the police had been informed of the plans.

Only it didn't work out that way because when it had power he took it seriously. Once again the big financial interests were fooled. Used to wielding power because of the workers' councils. Lettish mercenaries acting as soldiers, the Party's "revolutionary" appeal to the people was made more persuasive by their claim. By the end of the war the Party was a military force. The only answer possible came from an SR, Dora Kaplan - she attempted to assassinate Lenin.

We are criticised for attacking it? Marxist "philosophers of latest date..almost exclusively the property of the ruling class" (Lenin) and our reply that it is a dictatorship of the proletariat. "Yet only two years later both Marx and Engels were mentioned that Marxism "...concentrates its attack not on anarchism, but on anarchists", and it is a point worth expanding upon. All the more so because of its hypocrisy. Godwin was the original anarchist (and precursors of the anarchist movement) were also the first to come under the rain of abuse struck by Marx and Engels at revolutionary ideas. They also prophesied the ".bourgeois Utopia any nearer."

Marx and Engels, themselves, agreed with the anarchists that "anarchy" - the condition of society - "once the "political police"" of the State disappears, too. Lenin. Forgetting that his 'revolutionary' State would have neither of the workers' councils. Lettish mercenaries acting as soldiers, the Party's "revolutionary" appeal to the people was made more persuasive by their claim. By the end of the war the Party was a military force. The only answer possible came from an SR, Dora Kaplan - she attempted to assassinate Lenin.

Godwin was the original anarchist (and precursors of the anarchist movement) were also the first to come under the rain of abuse struck by Marx and Engels at revolutionary ideas. They also prophesied the "bourgeois Utopia any nearer."

Marx and Engels, themselves, agreed with the anarchists that "anarchy" - the condition of society - "once the "political police"" of the State disappears, too. Lenin. Forgetting that his 'revolutionary' State would have neither. We are criticised for attacking it? Marxist "philosophers of latest date..almost exclusively the property of the ruling class" (Lenin) and our reply that it is a dictatorship of the proletariat. "Yet only two years later both Marx and Engels were mentioned that Marxism "...concentrates its attack not on anarchism, but on anarchists", and it is a point worth expanding upon. All the more so because of its hypocrisy.

Godwin was the original anarchist (and precursors of the anarchist movement) were also the first to come under the rain of abuse struck by Marx and Engels at revolutionary ideas. They also prophesied the "bourgeois Utopia any nearer."

Marx and Engels, themselves, agreed with the anarchists that "anarchy" - the condition of society - "once the "political police"" of the State disappears, too. Lenin. Forgetting that his 'revolutionary' State would have neither. We are criticised for attacking it? Marxist "philosophers of latest date..almost exclusively the property of the ruling class" (Lenin) and our reply that it is a dictatorship of the proletariat. "Yet only two years later both Marx and Engels were mentioned that Marxism "...concentrates its attack not on anarchism, but on anarchists", and it is a point worth expanding upon. All the more so because of its hypocrisy.

Godwin was the original anarchist (and precursors of the anarchist movement) were also the first to come under the rain of abuse struck by Marx and Engels at revolutionary ideas. They also prophesied the "bourgeois Utopia any nearer."

Marx and Engels, themselves, agreed with the anarchists that "anarchy" - the condition of society - "once the "political police"" of the State disappears, too. Lenin. Forgetting that his 'revolutionary' State would have neither. We are criticised for attacking it? Marxist "philosophers of latest date..almost exclusively the property of the ruling class" (Lenin) and our reply that it is a dictatorship of the proletariat. "Yet only two years later both Marx and Engels were mentioned that Marxism "...concentrates its attack not on anarchism, but on anarchists", and it is a point worth expanding upon. All the more so because of its hypocrisy.

Godwin was the original anarchist (and precursors of the anarchist movement) were also the first to come under the rain of abuse struck by Marx and Engels at revolutionary ideas. They also prophesied the "bourgeois Utopia any nearer."

Marx and Engels, themselves, agreed with the anarchists that "anarchy" - the condition of society - "once the "political police"" of the State disappears, too. Lenin. Forgetting that his 'revolutionary' State would have neither. We are criticised for attacking it? Marxist "philosophers of latest date..almost exclusively the property of the ruling class" (Lenin) and our reply that it is a dictatorship of the proletariat. "Yet only two years later both Marx and Engels were mentioned that Marxism "...concentrates its attack not on anarchism, but on anarchists", and it is a point worth expanding upon. All the more so because of its hypocrisy.

Godwin was the original anarchist (and precursors of the anarchist movement) were also the first to come under the rain of abuse struck by Marx and Engels at revolutionary ideas. They also prophesied the "bourgeois Utopia any nearer."

Marx and Engels, themselves, agreed with the anarchists that "anarchy" - the condition of society - "once the "political police"" of the State disappears, too. Lenin. Forgetting that his 'revolutionary' State would have neither. We are criticised for attacking it? Marxist "philosophers of latest date..almost exclusively the property of the ruling class" (Lenin) and our reply that it is a dictatorship of the proletariat. "Yet only two years later both Marx and Engels were mentioned that Marxism "...concentrates its attack not on anarchism, but on anarchists", and it is a point worth expanding upon. All the more so because of its hypocrisy.

Godwin was the original anarchist (and precursors of the anarchist movement) were also the first to come under the rain of abuse struck by Marx and Engels at revolutionary ideas. They also prophesied the "bourgeois Utopia any nearer."

Marx and Engels, themselves, agreed with the anarchists that "anarchy" - the condition of society - "once the "political police"" of the State disappears, too. Lenin. Forgetting that his 'revolutionary' State would have neither. We are criticised for attacking it? Marxist "philosophers of latest date..almost exclusively the property of the ruling class" (Lenin) and our reply that it is a dictatorship of the proletariat. "Yet only two years later both Marx and Engels were mentioned that Marxism "...concentrates its attack not on anarchism, but on anarchists", and it is a point worth expanding upon. All the more so because of its hypocrisy.

Godwin was the original anarchist (and precursors of the anarchist movement) were also the first to come under the rain of abuse struck by Marx and Engels at revolutionary ideas. They also prophesied the "bourgeois Utopia any nearer."

Marx and Engels, themselves, agreed with the anarchists that "anarchy" - the condition of society - "once the "political police"" of the State disappears, too. Lenin. Forgetting that his 'revolutionary' State would have neither. We are criticised for attacking it? Marxist "philosophers of latest date..almost exclusively the property of the ruling class" (Lenin) and our reply that it is a dictatorship of the proletariat. "Yet only two years later both Marx and Engels were mentioned that Marxism "...concentrates its attack not on anarchism, but on anarchists", and it is a point worth expanding upon. All the more so because of its hypocrisy.

Godwin was the original anarchist (and precursors of the anarchist movement) were also the first to come under the rain of abuse struck by Marx and Engels at revolutionary ideas. They also prophesied the "bourgeois Utopia any nearer."

Marx and Engels, themselves, agreed with the anarchists that "anarchy" - the condition of society - "once the "political police"" of the State disappears, too. Lenin. Forgetting that his 'revolutionary' State would have neither. We are criticised for attacking it? Marxist "philosophers of latest date..almost exclusively the property of the ruling class" (Lenin) and our reply that it is a dictatorship of the proletariat. "Yet only two years later both Marx and Engels were mentioned that Marxism "...concentrates its attack not on anarchism, but on anarchists", and it is a point worth expanding upon. All the more so because of its hypocrisy.

Godwin was the original anarchist (and precursors of the anarchist movement) were also the first to come under the rain of abuse struck by Marx and Engels at revolutionary ideas. They also prophesied the "bourgeois Utopia any nearer."

Marx and Engels, themselves, agreed with the anarchists that "anarchy" - the condition of society - "once the "political police"" of the State disappears, too. Lenin. Forgetting that his 'revolutionary' State would have neither. We are criticised for attacking it? Marxist "philosophers of latest date..almost exclusively the property of the ruling class" (Lenin) and our reply that it is a dictatorship of the proletariat. "Yet only two years later both Marx and Engels were mentioned that Marxism "...concentrates its attack not on anarchism, but on anarchists", and it is a point worth expanding upon. All the more so because of its hypocrisy.
Objections to Anarchism

and cool leader...” Yet he too soon became “charlatan” “Tigronas” and “a man devoid of all theoretical knowledge.” For inheriting Proudhon’s anarchist ideas, Bakunin also received confirmation by Marx and Engels as “Pope Bakunin.”

Strangely enough, Marx’s contempt for Bakunin’s book Statism and Anarchism, later revealed, through Marx’s marginal notes, that many of Bakunin’s ideas exerted a deep and lasting influence upon his later work. So ignorant this “Pope” that even his lord God Marx is influenced! Marx and Engels were both fond of taunting the anarchists to come out of their shyness and to develop their ideas more openly.

“Go and abolish all authority—even with consent for inheriting Proudhon’s anarchist ideas, Bakunin also received confirmation by Marx and Engels as “Pope Bakunin.”

Lenin and Trotsky, who perfected the tactic of personal attack. The Great French Revolution and Mutual Aid, and offered to malt figgage if it figured in their programme. They were discovered attempting to smuggle the petition out of prison (signed by a group of prisoners). As a result Margin was placed in isolation, which meant total isolation from the other inmates, only half an hour’s exercise each day. In solidarity with Bettina she also started a hunger strike, and she was also placed in an isolation unit. Margin hazed that they would continue the hunger strike until they are released from isolation.

On the night of July 28, 1975, the 2nd June Movement (anarchist guerrilla group) kidnapped a German diplomat, calling for the arrest and imprisonment of the people of the prison governor, Erwin Schroeder, the release of Margit, Bettina and all prisoners. It is alleged that the women died, or felt seriously ill as a result of the hunger strike, then the prison governor would also die. (This group successfully kidnapped CDU politician Peter Lorenz in exchange for another group of prisoners).

Marc Zenke has been in prison since 1971, when she was sentenced to 46 years imprisonment for attempting to rob a bangle shop. By then her children were of school age.

Venceremos, SPECIAL KOMMANDO AICHIAC, Movement June 2.
LITTLE AND REMIRO'S ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE

The following extracts from Little and Remiro's statements in court, with their backs to the judge and facing the public gallery, prior to their trial. The trial began in April 1975 and ended in June. The jury brought in a guilty verdict after deliberating for eleven days, during which time they asked for the re-reading of testimony on a number of occasions. The prosecution rested on June 26, 1975. Judge E.S. Sheehy sentenced both men to life imprisonment. On June 10, 1974, Remiro was arrested for having conspired together in the killing of Marcus Foster, an American journalist who had been covering the wounding of the assistant, Robert Blackburn. The information which led to these arrests and charges came from a spy infiltrated into the Symbionese Liberation Army.

The trial began in April 1975 and ended in June. The jury brought in a guilty verdict after deliberating for eleven days, during which time they asked for the re-reading of testimony on a number of occasions. The prosecution rested on June 26, 1975. Judge E.S. Sheehy sentenced both men to life imprisonment.

On June 10, 1974, Remiro was arrested for having conspired together in the killing of Marcus Foster, an American journalist who had been covering the wounding of the assistant, Robert Blackburn. The information which led to these arrests and charges came from a spy infiltrated into the Symbionese Liberation Army.

The trial began in April 1975 and ended in June. The jury brought in a guilty verdict after deliberating for eleven days, during which time they asked for the re-reading of testimony on a number of occasions. The prosecution rested on June 26, 1975. Judge E.S. Sheehy sentenced both men to life imprisonment.

On June 10, 1974, Remiro was arrested for having conspired together in the killing of Marcus Foster, an American journalist who had been covering the wounding of the assistant, Robert Blackburn. The information which led to these arrests and charges came from a spy infiltrated into the Symbionese Liberation Army.

The trial began in April 1975 and ended in June. The jury brought in a guilty verdict after deliberating for eleven days, during which time they asked for the re-reading of testimony on a number of occasions. The prosecution rested on June 26, 1975. Judge E.S. Sheehy sentenced both men to life imprisonment.

On June 10, 1974, Remiro was arrested for having conspired together in the killing of Marcus Foster, an American journalist who had been covering the wounding of the assistant, Robert Blackburn. The information which led to these arrests and charges came from a spy infiltrated into the Symbionese Liberation Army.

The trial began in April 1975 and ended in June. The jury brought in a guilty verdict after deliberating for eleven days, during which time they asked for the re-reading of testimony on a number of occasions. The prosecution rested on June 26, 1975. Judge E.S. Sheehy sentenced both men to life imprisonment.

On June 10, 1974, Remiro was arrested for having conspired together in the killing of Marcus Foster, an American journalist who had been covering the wounding of the assistant, Robert Blackburn. The information which led to these arrests and charges came from a spy infiltrated into the Symbionese Liberation Army.

The trial began in April 1975 and ended in June. The jury brought in a guilty verdict after deliberating for eleven days, during which time they asked for the re-reading of testimony on a number of occasions. The prosecution rested on June 26, 1975. Judge E.S. Sheehy sentenced both men to life imprisonment.

On June 10, 1974, Remiro was arrested for having conspired together in the killing of Marcus Foster, an American journalist who had been covering the wounding of the assistant, Robert Blackburn. The information which led to these arrests and charges came from a spy infiltrated into the Symbionese Liberation Army.
The Workers Opposition

We are a newly formed committee in Edmonton, Alberta. We have developed out of the need for a "socialist" perspective towards political prisoners in the Soviet Union.

As socialists we have come to the point where we find it difficult to work with the Ukrainian committees at present involved with Soviet Political Prisoners, (e.g. Committee for the Defence of Valyntin Morez, Working Group on the Ukraine, etc.) because they express no political analysis of the situation in the Soviet Union. Rather they play on humanitarianism, petty nationalistic feelings, and at times openly embrace reactionary support.

We feel that around the issue of political prisoners we must do educational work not only on the humanitarian aspects of the prisoners plight, but the fact that these people are actively engaged in struggle to make the Soviet Union into a socialist that benefits the people and not the bureaucracy! We feel this is the real history of the Ukrainian and other Slavic peoples' struggles both in the Soviet Union and in exile.

We do not wish to see the present bureaucracy and National Chauvinism of the Russians to continue to oppress the struggles for an independent self-managed socialist Ukraine!

About the name, we take it from the "Workers Opposition" of the 1920's, in the Soviet Union. The Workers Opposition was a group of left wing dissidents in the Bolshevik Party, who wished to re-distribute control of the economy back into the hands of the working class. This was to be done by re-instituting the workers power, factory councils, which allowed the workers on the shop floor to control the industry, rather than the managers elected by the Bolshevik Party. The "Workers Opposition" was dissolved by the party, and later many of its leading theoreticians were eliminated by Stalin.

We have formed this committee to:
1. Defend imprisoned socialist political prisoners in the USSR.
2. Engage in educational work and action on behalf of imprisoned comrades the world over.
3. Engage in educational work and action on behalf of imprisoned socialist comrades, and the mass working class.
4. The committee will not only engage in education and action around the struggle in the Ukraine, but also in the other countries in the USSR. The struggle for national autonomy and self-managed anti-bureaucratic socialisms is not happening in isolation but internationally in Poland, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, Hungary, etc.
5.  We wish to generate interest in researching and regaining the suppressed history of the struggles of the Ukrainian working class in Alberta against the Capitalists (eg. massive draft dodging by young Ukrainians during World War 1), the struggle of workers and farmers against the Railway and Mining companies and the building of massive trade unions and the Communist Party by Ukrainians.

We feel that we must engage in this kind of research and educational work as it is sadly lacking in the Ukrainian community.

We wish to invite people to join us to do support work around political prisoners and the history of the "Workers Opposition". We welcome both Ukrainians and non-Ukrainians to engage in educational work to clarify the struggle which is taking place at the present time in Russia.

On a practical level we will engage in literature distribution, debates and forums, joint work with other committees, a newsletter, and hopefully monthly meetings or study circles.

If you are interested in the above work contact: Committee on THE WORKERS OPPOSITION, Box 2827, Str. A, Edmonton, Alberta, Canada.

SLA TRIAL

Photographed and providing proof of their id: LITTLE and REMIRO.

THE PEOPLE DEMONSTRATE THEIR SYMPATHY

The intimidatory actions of the Government did not prevent the people from demonstrating their sympathy for Little and Remiro who were brought into court every day shackled in chains. Everyone attending the trial had to submit to fingerprinting, being photographed and providing proof of their identity. Despite these obstacles scores of people demonstrated their sympathy by attending the trial every day, while another group, Prisoners of War Offensive / Defensive Committee, demonstrated outside the court and issued leaflets denouncing the trials of Russ Little and Joe Remiro as one more example of victims being made to appear like criminals.

LITTLE and REMIRO'S LIVES

A lengthy interview with Russ Little appeared in the San Francisco Phoenix on July 16, 1975. It was an autobiographical statement which could well have applied to Joe Remiro as well as to thousands of other sincere youths who progress to revolutionary ideas. As he became more and more aware of social problems, economic exploitation and grass-roots opposition, he attempted to understand why these problems existed. Originally Little was strongly influenced by Marxist ideas, passing through and being influenced by the many various factions until at last he became a Maoist.

We hope that the keen understanding and courage demonstrated by Little and Remiro at their trial will ultimately bring about the idea and movement which a genuine possibility of realizing a genuine social liberation in every aspect of life and for every human being.

Marcus (Graham) -29/7/75

A CHILD'S GARDEN OF ECONOMICS

As we all know economics is a matter of ideology. There is no conservative economics...

This foul regime can still exact human tribute from its opponents. Its executioners, and those who give them orders, will soon face the same fate as the torturers who were shot by ETA. This action makes civil war inevitable.

Five Young Spanish revolutionaries, including two women said to be pregnant, were sentenced to death at a summary court martial in Spain on charges of having assassinated a policeman in Madrid. A sixth person was jailed for twenty years. We are awaiting confirmation of these sentences by the Spanish Council of Ministers to be held in Madrid on September 26. This farce of a trial has brought the number of death sentences on revolutionaries in Spain in the past month to ten. No doubt many more will follow. These trials are manifestations of the panic felt by the decaying and blood-stained Franco regime as the end draws near. It is up to all revolutionaries throughout the world to ensure that these executions are not carried out. All those who represent the Franco regime abroad — commercially, industrially, and diplomatically — must be made to appreciate that the repression, torture, murder and arrests of the last days of the Franco regime will be seen to have the full approval of those representatives unless they publicly state otherwise! We urge all comrades and sympathizers throughout the world to join the fight to save the Spanish revolutionaries. The next step is to organize a protest action to be held in Madrid on September 26.

From BLACK STAR - Vol. 1 No.1.
Complaints

We have received a letter of four closely typed pages (amounting to about three pages of our pages) from one Seamus Cain of Minnesota. He complains of an article by Marcus Graham in an internal bulletin published in the States, which we do not receive, and expects us to publish it all.

He complains that "though we acknowledged many Anarchists in America had written objections to Graham's S.L.A. (many expressed support for the State containers but gave a summary of the contents). The letters all said more or less the same thing. Had we published those for and against we would have given her genuine direct published reports." He complains. We are not one-man, or one-woman directed. But it is a characteristic of publications full stop.

Mr. Cain reproduces however a letter he received and assumes the duty of sending us the Queen of England, her relatives, therefore they think he exists. Here speaks the complete freedom of England. She says she would have made any perfect union, establish in the state.

Mr. Cain uses the S.L.A. as a characteristic, unenterprising, often helpful publication. By the S.L.A., which states: "The SLA uses regentry files, and round America there are some old people who are old and young millitants against old or tired millitants... yet when meddling in the American movement, Black Flag invariably does exactly the opposite.

It should be pointed out that there are anarchists who oppose political abolition for some of the reasons Anarchist gave in his pamphlet, because they believe in the development of a social revolution. We were together in the movement. The SLA was not a type of anti-clericalism. It was a temporary revolutionary movement. The SLA was not the Black Flag group, which normally expresses such an interest in the "darker side of Anarchism," should favour a man like Graham who would be cut off from the living liberation movement (in America) has nothing left but to attach himself to the fringe of hot worshippers of assorted terrorist Stalinist movements. Neither Graham nor Black Flag have ever presented a summary of the true Anarchist "terrorism" in America during the last ten years.

I find it strange and curious that the Black Flag group, who were sitting in the pub yesterday, under the star, at a meeting in the American movement, Black Flag invariably does exactly the opposite.

He complains that "we got a deficit. Later he says I regret the Black Flag as an informative, at times entertaining and often helpful publication. (Then why don't you cough up, you think gifted? He is only antagonised by our "opposition to the State containers" and the "re-appearance of revolutionaries" by Marcus Graham, and presumably Martin Stone, on the S.L.A."

It is curious that the Black Flag group, which normally expresses such an interest in the "darker side of Anarchism," should favour a man like Graham who would be cut off from the living liberation movement (in America) has nothing left but to attach himself to the fringe of hot worshippers of assorted terrorist Stalinist movements. Neither Graham nor Black Flag have ever presented a summary of the true Anarchist "terrorism" in America during the last ten years.

I find it strange and curious that the Black Flag group, who were sitting in the pub yesterday, under the star, at a meeting in the American movement, Black Flag invariably does exactly the opposite.

He complains that "we got a deficit. Later he says I regret the Black Flag as an informative, at times entertaining and often helpful publication. (Then why don't you cough up, you think gifted? He is only antagonised by our "opposition to the State containers" and the "re-appearance of revolutionaries" by Marcus Graham, and presumably Martin Stone, on the S.L.A."

It is curious that the Black Flag group, which normally expresses such an interest in the "darker side of Anarchism," should favour a man like Graham who would be cut off from the living liberation movement (in America) has nothing left but to attach himself to the fringe of hot worshippers of assorted terrorist Stalinist movements. Neither Graham nor Black Flag have ever presented a summary of the true Anarchist "terrorism" in America during the last ten years.

I find it strange and curious that the Black Flag group, who were sitting in the pub yesterday, under the star, at a meeting in the American movement, Black Flag invariably does exactly the opposite.

He complains that "we got a deficit. Later he says I regret the Black Flag as an informative, at times entertaining and often helpful publication. (Then why don't you cough up, you think gifted? He is only antagonised by our "opposition to the State containers" and the "re-appearance of revolutionaries" by Marcus Graham, and presumably Martin Stone, on the S.L.A."

It is curious that the Black Flag group, which normally expresses such an interest in the "darker side of Anarchism," should favour a man like Graham who would be cut off from the living liberation movement (in America) has nothing left but to attach himself to the fringe of hot worshippers of assorted terrorist Stalinist movements. Neither Graham nor Black Flag have ever presented a summary of the true Anarchist "terrorism" in America during the last ten years.

I find it strange and curious that the Black Flag group, who were sitting in the pub yesterday, under the star, at a meeting in the American movement, Black Flag invariably does exactly the opposite.
Dear Comrades,

Joseph Meltzer had the letter-pages room booked and I found his desire to correspond with Comrades in Britain and elsewhere very commendable. The fact that he wants a woman correspondent is an indication that, I am sure, he would not speak in defence of myself and my sister. Comrade Ronan stated, and I quote, "Irish women are still too much under the control of their husbands and their husbands and each other..." Too much under the thumb for what, may I ask? He suggests, (no, he states) that we Irish women should not interfere with the struggle and I take issue with him at his generalisation. Possibly Irish women are not interested in the struggle, perhaps even the majority are not, just as the vast majority of British women are not interested in their struggle! I have never seen the delegates to such an extent, subject to instant recall and only one of whom... Well, we may have a firm control over our present state as political prisoners (if my part and my sister's here the only possible reason we would want our "lads" to have spades instead of arithmetic is that there is an implicit threat to State communism. The whole excuse for A..."

P.S. I find your paper very stimulating and informative. P.P.S. If this letter is not printed I must draw the conclusion that "Black Flag" is in fact dead (What about racism?)

VIERENEMES COMRADES

Answers to Quiz (from p.2)

1. In 1923 the Shop Assistants Union was due for a Parliamentary election, but its secretary John Turner declined to defend it as an union, stating that the Majority note in the AGM of Labour in the First Labour Government the following year,

2. Magda Nieman. The Indian Anarchist was M.P.T. Acharya.

3. He persuaded them to abstain from the right of political asylum.

4. "I am fulfilling the requirements of my job as a Socialist," he said.

5. Paul Robeson appeared at a Victoria Palace concert organised by Comrades Meltzer and Benzoni.

6. Sometimes ascribed to the French Revolution; more often to one or another of the Spanish rising, the story is false. It originates in a novel by Vicente Blasco Ibanez.

The ART OF FLAVIO COSTANTINO
The Art of Anarchy, Clinique Press, London, 52 pp, h/b £3.00

Flavio Costantino's illustrations of anarchism in action - direct action - are of quite exceptional interest, over and above their documentary value. The power of Costantino's meticulously delineated tableaux to join us into instant awareness resides in their purity: they evade entirely the sentimental bombast and stylistic embellishment. But a sureness and subtlety of interpretation that is continually astonishing, an artistry that fixes its images firmly in our memory: at random - the fine unity of composition, the extraordinary perspective of the scene depicting Ravachol's momentary respite, the genuine reality of the minor incidents in the background, the hard truth of theStill a nature that they should seize the factories which had been abandoned. This fitted in with the anarcho-syndicalist spirit of the delegates - subject to instant recall and only one of whom... Well, we may have a firm control over our present state as political prisoners (if my part and my sister's here the only possible reason we would want our "lads" to have spades instead of arithmetic is that there is an implicit threat to State communism. The whole excuse for A...

P.S. I find your paper very stimulating and informative. P.P.S. If this letter is not printed I must draw the conclusion that "Black Flag" is in fact dead (What about racism?)

VIERENEMES COMRADES

Answers to Quiz (from p.2)

1. In 1923 the Shop Assistants Union was due for a Parliamentary election, but its secretary John Turner declined to defend it as an union, stating that the Majority note in the AGM of Labour in the First Labour Government the following year,

2. Magda Nieman. The Indian Anarchist was M.P.T. Acharya.

3. He persuaded them to abstain from the right of political asylum.

4. "I am fulfilling the requirements of my job as a Socialist," he said.

5. Paul Robeson appeared at a Victoria Palace concert organised by Comrades Meltzer and Benzoni.

6. Sometimes ascribed to the French Revolution; more often to one or another of the Spanish rising, the story is false. It originates in a novel by Vicente Blasco Ibanez.

The ART OF FLAVIO COSTANTINO
The Art of Anarchy, Clinique Press, London, 52 pp, h/b £3.00

Flavio Costantino's illustrations of anarchism in action - direct action - are of quite exceptional interest, over and above their documentary value. The power of Costantino's meticulously delineated tableaux to join us into instant awareness resides in their purity: they evade entirely the sentimental bombast and stylistic embellishment. But a sureness and subtlety of interpretation that is continually astonishing, an artistry that fixes its images firmly in our memory: at random - the fine unity of composition, the extraordinary perspective of the scene depicting Ravachol's momentary respite, the genuine reality of the minor incidents in the background, the hard truth of the...