

IT'S A TOUGH JOB
BEING TRANSPORT MINISTER.
I,M ALWAYS IN THE HOT SEAT

I think Met Ticket's Great

After all it made Jim "POTSY" Kennan move on giving me my big chance to get off the back bench and into the public eye.

How else could I promote my "user friendly" image making lots of sickening T V adverts and instituting the much needed stalling tactic otherwise known as "community consultation."

I have to be seen on trams now and then but it's a small sacrifice for my career - after all being Minister for Transport means the sky's the limit - won't be long 'til people will be calling ME premier material (or at least a promising treasurer).

'Light Rail' ,what's that? hang on I seem to have misplaced my portfolio. Perhaps "Snappy Tom" Roper knows where it is.

Victoria
Going Nowhere
on Met Ticket.

The Met.

stick it