PEN PAL WANTED
A 22 year old Anarchist serving a 12 year sentence in the State Prison for Women in Arizona has written requesting correspondence:
Kathy "Sparrow" Aikman (43886)
Box 3400 - Women's Center
Goodyear, ARIZONA.
85338 USA
Would like to be put on mailing list for anarchist Video tapes. For enquiries please contact:
Kathy "Sparrow" Aikman (43886) & Castle buses from the Elephant are
Box 3400 — Women's Center
Goodyear, ARIZONA. 85338 USA.

MEETING
REVOLUTIONARY COLLECTIVES IN SPAIN 1936-39
is the subject of a talk by Frank Mintz to the History Society of Queen Mary's College, on February 21st (Tuesday) at 5pm in Room L 125. The meeting will be open to the public. Q.M. College is in Mile End Road, London E1. Frank Mintz, who now lives in Paris, has contributed to Black Flag and to the old Cienfuegos Press Anarchist Review.

INTERNATIONAL ANARCHIST DAY
An International Anarchist Day will be taking place in Brussels on March 24th 1984 at the Flemish University, from 10am till 6pm with live entertainent afterwards. The five themes of the day are as follows; anarchosyndicalism; anarcho-feminism; repression and jails; anarchism in the Soviet Union; and organisation and propaganda in the anarchist movement. For further information ring Koen in Brussels tel: 03 232 7195.

ANARCHIST BENEFIT
On Friday 29 February 1984 a benefit for anarchist prisoners will be held at The Ambulance Station, 306 Old Kent Road, Southwark, SE1. Ibus Elephant & Castle, buses from the Elephant are 53, 63, 21, 141, 177. Time 6pm Bands: ODA & The Happy End & political poet Michael Belbin. There will also be anarchist video tapes. For enquiries 121 Bookshop, 121 Railton Road, London SE24 Ph 274 6655 2-6pm

PUBLICATIONS RECEIVED
Rebel Worker, Anarcho-syndicalist paper Vol.2 No. 6(12) Dec 1983-Jan. 1984. Articles on Chile, Poland, S.A., etc. c/o P.O. Box 92, Broadway, 2007. (Sydney, Australia.)
CNT (Organ of the CNT-AIT) No. 73. Articles on Nicaragua, The Workers of Sagunto, Ecology and lots more. c/o CNT c/Magdalena, 6-8 Madrid-12. (Spain).
Lotta di Classe (organ of the USI-AIT). special issue on USI Congress. Lotta di Classe, USI, Lazio, Via Ostiense, 150 Roma (Italy).

BLACK FLAG
FORTNIGHTLY NEWSLETTER 13/2/84

SCALA The Farce Continues
Following his recent trial in Barcelona, Joaquim Gambin Hernandez, the police informer and agent provocateur responsible for the Scala bombing (15th Jan - 1978) has been sentenced to 7 years imprisonment.

There has been renewed interest in the events surrounding the bombing ever since Gambin sent a statement to the Public Prosecutor in Barcelona at the end of last year admitting, as the CNT-AIT has been claiming since 1978, that he was a police informer who had been ordered to infiltrate the anarchist movement with the sole aim of discrediting it.

As a result of Gambin's testimony, & with the aid of police lies, 5 CNT comrades were arrested immediately after the bombing and were brought to trial from 1980-1.

There has been renewed interest in the events surrounding the bombing ever since Gambin sent a statement to the Public Prosecutor in Barcelona at the end of last year admitting, as the CNT-AIT has been claiming since 1978, that he was a police informer who had been ordered to infiltrate the anarchist movement with the sole aim of discrediting it.

As a result of Gambin's testimony, & with the aid of police lies, 5 CNT comrades were arrested immediately after the bombing and were brought to trial from 1980-1.

Three of the 5 (Jose Cuervas Casado, Arturo Palma Segura and Javier Canadas Gascon) are still in jail, serving 17 year sentences, despite the CNT-AIT's efforts to obtain their release.

Retail booksellers, Anarchist Day will be taking place in Brussels on March 24th 1984 at the Flemish University, from 10am till 6pm with live entertainment afterwards. The five themes of the day are as follows: anarchosyndicalism; anarcho-feminism; repression and jails; anarchism in the Soviet Union; and organisation and propaganda in the anarchist movement. For further information ring Koen in Brussels tel: 03 232 7195.
Upon, roughly up, had handcuffs forced on his (one of his hands was bleeding profusely) and manhandled into the police vehicle. Two staff of the ITCA building were nearly shocked at this treatment, especially as the security guard had admitted that he had actually thrown the man out of the window. The man was lucky to be alive: he had not only survived an attempted murder, he had also got through the day without being shot at by an anxious ATS thug. If the ATS are called out to this type of incident, they must be feeling very vulnerable indeed. Needless to say none of the above was reported in any newspaper or on the TV.

Home Defence

You remember a few weeks back the launch of a new far-right vigilante organisation, Defence Begins At Home; well guess who's just gone and joined their elite steering committee? Perhaps a clue, They've got a top naval official (Admiral of the Fleet, The Lord Hill-Norton); they've got a high-ranking army chap (General Sir Anthony Farrar-Hockley); they've got a high-flier (Air Marshal Sir Frederick Sowrey); and even a leading industrialist (Sir David Wills – head of the Wills Tobacco Empire). To make the jig-saw complete all they needed is an ex-top cop. No, they hadn't managed to recruit Sir Robert Mark, but they have got them- selves the next best thing - a Super-army chap (General Sir Anthony Farrar-Hockley) they've got a high-flier (Air Marshal Sir Frederick Sowrey); and even a leading industrialist (Sir David Wills – head of the Wills Tobacco Empire). To make the jig-saw complete all they needed is an ex-top cop. No, they hadn't managed to recruit Sir Robert Mark, but they have got them- selves the next best thing - a Super-army chap (General Sir Anthony Farrar-Hockley) they've got a high-flier (Air Marshal Sir Frederick Sowrey); and even a leading industrialist (Sir David Wills – head of the Wills Tobacco Empire). To make the jig-saw complete all they needed is an ex-top cop. No, they hadn't managed to recruit Sir Robert Mark, but they have got them- selves the next best thing - a Super-army chap (General Sir Anthony Farrar-Hockley) they've got a high-flier (Air Marshal Sir Frederick Sowrey); and even a leading industrialist (Sir David Wills – head of the Wills Tobacco Empire).

Incidentally DBAH claims that their main role is to help police against Russian revolutionaries - "incidentally The Mercenary (formerly The Phoenix - paper of the British Movement) also adopts the same symbol. Fanny symbol for survivalists, when you consider how many dead hedgehogs there are around?

Incidentally DBAH claims that their main objective is to persuade the government of the need to set up a Department of Home Defence and to persuade the government to give the right to keep arms. They have also been advised to use this symbol for survivalists, when you consider how many dead hedgehogs there are around?

Incidentally DBAH claims that their main objective is to persuade the government of the need to set up a Department of Home Defence and to persuade the government to give the right to keep arms. They have also been advised to use this symbol for survivalists, when you consider how many dead hedgehogs there are around?

Incidentally DBAH claims that their main objective is to persuade the government of the need to set up a Department of Home Defence and to persuade the government to give the right to keep arms. They have also been advised to use this symbol for survivalists, when you consider how many dead hedgehogs there are around?

Incidentally DBAH claims that their main objective is to persuade the government of the need to set up a Department of Home Defence and to persuade the government to give the right to keep arms. They have also been advised to use this symbol for survivalists, when you consider how many dead hedgehogs there are around?

Incidentally DBAH claims that their main objective is to persuade the government of the need to set up a Department of Home Defence and to persuade the government to give the right to keep arms. They have also been advised to use this symbol for survivalists, when you consider how many dead hedgehogs there are around?

Incidentally DBAH claims that their main objective is to persuade the government of the need to set up a Department of Home Defence and to persuade the government to give the right to keep arms. They have also been advised to use this symbol for survivalists, when you consider how many dead hedgehogs there are around?

Incidentally DBAH claims that their main objective is to persuade the government of the need to set up a Department of Home Defence and to persuade the government to give the right to keep arms. They have also been advised to use this symbol for survivalists, when you consider how many dead hedgehogs there are around?

Incidentally DBAH claims that their main objective is to persuade the government of the need to set up a Department of Home Defence and to persuade the government to give the right to keep arms. They have also been advised to use this symbol for survivalists, when you consider how many dead hedgehogs there are around?

Incidentally DBAH claims that their main objective is to persuade the government of the need to set up a Department of Home Defence and to persuade the government to give the right to keep arms. They have also been advised to use this symbol for survivalists, when you consider how many dead hedgehogs there are around?

Incidentally DBAH claims that their main objective is to persuade the government of the need to set up a Department of Home Defence and to persuade the government to give the right to keep arms. They have also been advised to use this symbol for survivalists, when you consider how many dead hedgehogs there are around?

Incidentally DBAH claims that their main objective is to persuade the government of the need to set up a Department of Home Defence and to persuade the government to give the right to keep arms. They have also been advised to use this symbol for survivalists, when you consider how many dead hedgehogs there are around?

Incidentally DBAH claims that their main objective is to persuade the government of the need to set up a Department of Home Defence and to persuade the government to give the right to keep arms. They have also been advised to use this symbol for survivalists, when you consider how many dead hedgehogs there are around?

Incidentally DBAH claims that their main objective is to persuade the government of the need to set up a Department of Home Defence and to persuade the government to give the right to keep arms. They have also been advised to use this symbol for survivalists, when you consider how many dead hedgehogs there are around?

Incidentally DBAH claims that their main objective is to persuade the government of the need to set up a Department of Home Defence and to persuade the government to give the right to keep arms. They have also been advised to use this symbol for survivalists, when you consider how many dead hedgehogs there are around?

Incidentally DBAH claims that their main objective is to persuade the government of the need to set up a Department of Home Defence and to persuade the government to give the right to keep arms. They have also been advised to use this symbol for survivalists, when you consider how many dead hedgehogs there are around?

Incidentally DBAH claims that their main objective is to persuade the government of the need to set up a Department of Home Defence and to persuade the government to give the right to keep arms. They have also been advised to use this symbol for survivalists, when you consider how many dead hedgehogs there are around?
INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Vancouver 5 Trial Continues

With the admissibility of wire-tapping evidence, things look rough: random conversations, political discussions, the usual hypothetical arguments and scenarios can all be taken out of context and used as 'damning evidence'. As a result the Five may be forced to go to court and to bring their politics directly into the hearing. Now, more than ever, the Five will need the support of those opposed to the state and to the exploitation of this earth and its resources. For those who proclaim their adherence to direct action, its stand up and be counted time. bombing on a massive scale could have done: bombing as effective as they were... on.

Now, more than ever, the Five will regarding the nature of the charges: take more than just letters of solidarity. Outlets and Litton Industries is in conspiracy to bomb a Cruise test site, rebels already at work as a video source. A group calling itself 'Friction Direct'.

The trial has begun of two people, accused of the attempted assassination of a top NATO chief, the successful assassination of two leading industrialists and a state prosecutor, and several other charges. The two are Christian Klar and Brigitte Mohnhaupt, who have been held in the notorious Stammheim prison for the last 14 months awaiting the commencement of the trial. The state has charged that they were prominent members of the Red Army Faction. Mohnhaupt has in November 1982 when she, together with Aldelheid Schulz, were allegedly attacking an arms dump near Frankfurt. The dump presumably contained damaging evidence, including an RPG7 Rocket Launcher, forgers documents, ammunition, explosives, firearms and grenades, as well as other restricted documents and RAF security papers. Mohnhaupt has in fact been in the RAF since the early 70's. She served nearly a year of a 10 year sentence, and on her release in '77, went underground. She was named as one of the chief suspects involved in the attempted rocket attack, in August '77, on the Federal Prosecutor at Karlsruhe. She has also been named by the security forces as being involved in the killing of Jurgen-Ponto, the industrialist, and the kidnapping and execution (some say in retaliation for the Stammheim murders) of Hans-Martin Schleyer.

They could face life imprisonment. But why should they become martyrs because of their defense to settle for compromise and formal protest? Nevertheless any self-punitive distinctions should be seen as part of a wider state strategy to criminalise legitimate opposition. As someone from a Vancouver women's group said regarding the nature of the charges: 'The suffragettes broke us poured acid all over golf courses, broke hundreds of windows, and in one fell swoop burned down thousands of letters of solidarity and its resources. For those who proclaim their adherence to direct action, it is stand up and be counted time. bombing on a massive scale could have done: bombing as effective as they were... on.

Now, more than ever, the Five will regarding the nature of the charges: take more than just letters of solidarity. Outlets and Litton Industries is in conspiracy to bomb a Cruise test site, rebels already at work as a video source. A group calling itself 'Friction Direct'.

The trial has begun of two people, accused of the attempted assassination of a top NATO chief, the successful assassination of two leading industrialists and a state prosecutor, and several other charges. The two are Christian Klar and Brigitte Mohnhaupt, who have been held in the notorious Stammheim prison for the last 14 months awaiting the commencement of the trial. The state has charged that they were prominent members of the Red Army Faction. Mohnhaupt has in November 1982 when she, together with Aldelheid Schulz, were allegedly attacking an arms dump near Frankfurt. The dump presumably contained damaging evidence, including an RPG7 Rocket Launcher, forgers documents, ammunition, explosives, firearms and grenades, as well as other restricted documents and RAF security papers. Mohnhaupt has in fact been in the RAF since the early 70's. She served nearly a year of a 10 year sentence, and on her release in '77, went underground. She was named as one of the chief suspects involved in the attempted rocket attack, in August '77, on the Federal Prosecutor at Karlsruhe. She has also been named by the security forces as being involved in the killing of Jurgen-Ponto, the industrialist, and the kidnapping and execution (some say in retaliation for the Stammheim murders) of Hans-Martin Schleyer.

GREECE

The trial begins of two people, accused of the attempted assassination of a top NATO chief, the successful assassination of two leading industrialists and a state prosecutor, and several other charges. The two are Christian Klar and Brigitte Mohnhaupt, who have been held in the notorious Stammheim prison for the last 14 months awaiting the commencement of the trial. The state has charged that they were prominent members of the Red Army Faction. Mohnhaupt has in November 1982 when she, together with Aldelheid Schulz, were allegedly attacking an arms dump near Frankfurt. The dump supposedly contained damaging evidence, including an RPG7 Rocket Launcher, forgers documents, ammunition, explosives, firearms and grenades, as well as other restricted documents and RAF security papers. Mohnhaupt has in fact been in the RAF since the early 70's. She served nearly a year of a 10 year sentence, and on her release in '77, went underground. She was named as one of the chief suspects involved in the attempted rocket attack, in August '77, on the Federal Prosecutor at Karlsruhe. She has also been named by the security forces as being involved in the killing of Jurgen-Ponto, the industrialist, and the kidnapping and execution (some say in retaliation for the Stammheim murders) of Hans-Martin Schleyer.

Hunger Strike Ends

Fidel Manrique Garrido, a CNT militant and very good friend of the Anarchist Black Cross has recently been forced to stage a hunger strike after he applied to be considered for early release.

Even though he had the right to apply and had the active support of many comrades and friends, it took the authorities 9 days to eventually agree to consider his application. As a result of the hunger strike Fidel lost 17 pounds weight. He is currently being held at Segovia prison.

Despite writing to write to Fidel can do so (in Spanish where possible) at this address:

Fidel Manrique Garrido, Apdo de Correos, 11, SEGOVIA SPAIN

KRAZIMO is a magazine published by an anarchist gay transvestite Paola (Paul Revenioti). The magazine deals with sexual politics from an anarchist point of view. Paola and the magazine were prosecuted for obscenity, this law is not used against pornography but against Krazimo, Anifi (a gay magazine) and the works of de Sade. Paola was not found guilty in the trial against the 3rd issue. The obscene article was a sketch by Jean Cocteau. However on the publication of the 4th edition (the last one so far), the police again sent Paola to court, this time the offending article is a drawing of two men kissing. Paola was sentenced to four months in prison and a fine of 30,000 drachmas. In court Paola refused a lawyer and accused the socialist state of prosecuting him for his/her homosexuality and politics. Paola has also received a 5 month suspended sentence in the past for for fighting with a cop. So now Paola is in danger of going to jail for nine months and paying the fine. An appeal has been made and a new sentence is to be imposed. The aim of the persecution is to ensure that Krazimo does not appear again, however a new issue will be produced as soon as finances allow.

Our solidarity is vital and comrades are urged to write to the Greek embassy in London and to the ministry of 'Justice'.

Ministry of Justice, Ypourgon Dikeyagnisis, Sinonos 2, Athens, Greece. The Ambassador, Greek Embassy, 1A Holland Park W14.

To Krazimo, Oinosis, 7, Anfiati Ag.Antonios, Piraenous, Greece.

F.S. The position of gays and transvestites in Greece is precarious to say the least. In one year alone six gays and transvestites have been murdered in Athens, in most cases the killers not being found. The murders are obviously a reflection of the sexist and hierarchical nature of Greek society.
DEATH OF SOUCHY

We have received the news that our German comrade Augustin Souchy has died in a Munich hospital at the age of 92 after a serious lung disease. Souchy, whose revolutionary activities spanned 1/2 of a century, was born August 28th 1892 in Ratibor (today in Poland) into a social-democratic family. From an early age he was much influenced by the anarchist Gustav Landauer rather than the communist Clara Zetkin or the social democrat August Bebin. It was the kind of socialism that appealed to me most," he used to say about Landauer’s speeches and lectures.

When the first world war broke out Souchy was attending an anti-militarist meeting in Austria. He was arrested and deported back to Germany. On the extradition warrant was written in large letters Vorsicht: Anarchist! (Danger: Anarchist!) This also became the title of his memoirs. Soon after this he was forced to leave Germany to avoid conscription and settled in Sweden.

Returning to Germany in 1919 he became a member of the anarcho-syndicalist Freie Arbeiter Union Deutschlands (FAUD) which at that time had a membership of 100,000.

In 1920 he travelled to Russia as a representative of the FAUD at the invitation of the Bolshevik government. Lenin even tried during a meeting to ‘cure’ him from his ‘infantile disorder’ e.g. anarcho-syndicalism. To no avail, however. On his return to Germany Souchy wrote the book How does the worker and peasant live in Russia, and he was one of the fiercest critics of the Bolshevik revolution.

In 1921 he took part in the founding of the International Workers Association (IWA). Together with the German anarchist Rudolf Rocker and the Russian Alexander Schapiro he became the secretary of the IWA. At the same time he was the editor of the FAUD weekly The Syndicalist. He saw at first hand the rise to power of the nazis in Berlin and when he heard on the radio the news of the Reichstag fire he planned, together with Erich Muhsam to escape from Germany. Unfortunately Muhsam was arrested the following morning as he returned for the last time to his house, (which was watched by the police). As Souchy fled alone his ‘wanted’ posters were already being pasted up throughout Germany.

He was in Barcelona on 19th July 1936 when the first shots of the Spanish revolution were fired. Three days later he announced in a radio broadcast the revolutionaries victory over the fascists. But fascism wasn’t finished yet in Spain. He experienced the end of the Spanish Republic in France, while on the run from Franco’s troops and nazi soldiers.

He went in exile in Mexico (with a Spanish passport). While living there he visited Cuba before and after the revolution. In the 60s he worked for the reformist International Federation of Free Trade Unions and the International Labour Office which brought him a lot of criticism from his anarchist comrades.

"Fought for a lot, achieved little" he described his life. Augustin Souchy’s fight ended on January 1 1984.

(Mark Ulrich Dillman)

N.A.T.O. PREPARE

RAF Strike Command at High Wycombe is to be effectively devolved to 3 satellite bases in preparation for its conversion to NATO Euro-Command Reserve HQ. Two of the four groups within RAF Strike Command were amalgamated in November to form an enlarged 1 Group, with headquarters at RAF Upavon (Wilt). The other two groups – 11 and 18 Group will be based at RAF Bentley Priory and Northwood (Fleet O ditch DEPLOYMENT HQ and CINCLEAN HQ). The Upavon site will provide a closer link with UKLF HQ, while the Northwood site will provide simultaneous control with naval operations. High Wycombe will still retain nominal overall control over Strike Command, but with more forward operational planning under the auspices of Upavon, Northwood and Bentley Priory, greater attention will be able to be placed on its role as a vital link in the NATO battlefield command.

SOURCE: Royal United Services Institute.

ANARCHIST FINED

On 24th January, Mike Gillard (a South London anarchist) was fined £300 for "using or installing" a transmitt er for Our Radio, the Open Access Community pirate station. In addition over £200 worth of transmitting equipment was ordered confiscated.

The court case goes back to a raid on Mike's flat in Deptford last March, where police found a transmitter and other equipment. Gillard denied "using or installing" the equipment, explaining that the Our Radio Team had left his flat just before the police arrived. Although he had witnesses to prove this, and although police and Home Office detectives admitted that they had not direct evidence against him, Gillard was found guilty.

Our Radio has been off the air for 8 months but now has a new transmitter and plans to begin a "guerrilla" station soon.

Cheques and postal orders to support Our Radio, BM Box Hurricane, London WC1. All money will be used for fines, new equipment and republishing the Our Radio Booklet.

DEATH OF SOUCHY

We have received the news that our German comrade Augustin Souchy has died in a Munich hospital at the age of 92 after a serious lung disease. Souchy, whose revolutionary activities spanned 1/2 of a century, was born August 28th 1892 in Ratibor (today in Poland) into a social-democratic family. From an early age he was much influenced by the anarchist Gustav Landauer rather than the communist Clara Zetkin or the social democrat August Bebin. It was the kind of socialism that appealed to me most," he used to say about Landauer’s speeches and lectures.

When the first world war broke out Souchy was attending an anti-militarist meeting in Austria. He was arrested and deported back to Germany. On the extradition warrant was written in large letters Vorsicht: Anarchist! (Danger: Anarchist!) This also became the title of his memoirs. Soon after this he was forced to leave Germany to avoid conscription and settled in Sweden.

Returning to Germany in 1919 he became a member of the anarcho-syndicalist Freie Arbeiter Union Deutschlands (FAUD) which at that time had a membership of 100,000.

In 1920 he travelled to Russia as a representative of the FAUD at the invitation of the Bolshevik government. Lenin even tried during a meeting to ‘cure’ him from his ‘infantile disorder’ e.g. anarcho-syndicalism. To no avail, however. On his return to Germany Souchy wrote the book How does the worker and peasant live in Russia, and he was one of the fiercest critics of the Bolshevik revolution.

In 1921 he took part in the founding of the International Workers Association (IWA). Together with the German anarchist Rudolf Rocker and the Russian Alexander Schapiro he became the secretary of the IWA. At the same time he was the editor of the FAUD weekly The Syndicalist. He saw at first hand the rise to power of the nazis in Berlin and when he heard on the radio the news of the Reichstag fire he planned, together with Erich Muhsam to escape from Germany. Unfortunately Muhsam was arrested the following morning as he returned for the last time to his house, (which was watched by the police). As Souchy fled alone his ‘wanted’ posters were already being pasted up throughout Germany.

He was in Barcelona on 19th July 1936 when the first shots of the Spanish revolution were fired. Three days later he announced in a radio broadcast the revolutionaries victory over the fascists. But fascism wasn’t finished yet in Spain. He experienced the end of the Spanish Republic in France, while on the run from Franco’s troops and nazi soldiers.

He went in exile in Mexico (with a Spanish passport). While living there he visited Cuba before and after the revolution. In the 60s he worked for the reformist International Federation of Free Trade Unions and the International Labour Office which brought him a lot of criticism from his anarchist comrades.

"Fought for a lot, achieved little" he described his life. Augustin Souchy’s fight ended on January 1 1984.

(Mark Ulrich Dillman)

N.A.T.O. PREPARE

RAF Strike Command at High Wycombe is to be effectively devolved to 3 satellite bases in preparation for its conversion to NATO Euro-Command Reserve HQ. Two of the four groups within RAF Strike Command were amalgamated in November to form an enlarged 1 Group, with headquarters at RAF Upavon (Wilt). The other two groups – 11 and 18 Group will be based at RAF Bentley Priory and Northwood (Fleet O ditch DEPLOYMENT HQ and CINCLEAN HQ). The Upavon site will provide a closer link with UKLF HQ, while the Northwood site will provide simultaneous control with naval operations. High Wycombe will still retain nominal overall control over Strike Command, but with more forward operational planning under the auspices of Upavon, Northwood and Bentley Priory, greater attention will be able to be placed on its role as a vital link in the NATO battlefield command.

SOURCE: Royal United Services Institute.

ANARCHIST FINED

On 24th January, Mike Gillard (a South London anarchist) was fined £300 for "using or installing" a transmitt er for Our Radio, the Open Access Community pirate station. In addition over £200 worth of transmitting equipment was ordered confiscated.

The court case goes back to a raid on Mike's flat in Deptford last March, where police found a transmitter and other equipment. Gillard denied "using or installing" the equipment, explaining that the Our Radio Team had left his flat just before the police arrived. Although he had witnesses to prove this, and although police and Home Office detectives admitted that they had not direct evidence against him, Gillard was found guilty.

Our Radio has been off the air for 8 months but now has a new transmitter and plans to begin a "guerrilla" station soon.

Cheques and postal orders to support Our Radio, BM Box Hurricane, London WC1. All money will be used for fines, new equipment and republishing the Our Radio Booklet.